2. Pursuant to the Mediation Order, the Court referred to facilitative mediation (the "Mediation") before the Honorable Victoria A. Roberts, United States District Judge ("Judge Roberts") the following proofs of claim (together, the "Claims") and the City's objections thereto: (a) proof of claim

On October 3, 2014, the Judge Roberts entered the Order Pertaining to Facilitative Mediation (Docket No. 7812) (the "Order for Information") in the Chapter 9 Case requiring that the City, AFSCME and the Coalition each provide certain additional information with respect to the Claims and the Mediation (the "Supplemental Documents") by no later than noon on October 7, 2014.¹

4. In compliance with the Order for Information, prior to noon on the date hereof, the City delivered to Judge Roberts' chambers [and served upon counsel to AFSCME and the Coalition] the Supplemental Documents requested from the City.

¹ Although the Order for Information provided that the parties should electronically file the Supplemental Information, instructions subsequently received from Judge Roberts clarified that the parties should deliver the Supplemental Information to Judge Roberts' chambers and file a Statement of Compliance with the Order for Information.
